Surprise Party for Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones

A surprise party was successfully carried out Thursday evening, Sept. 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, 1517-15th Avenue West, and proved a very enjoyable affair. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were married on the 28th of September, 1920 and a party in honor of their thirteenth wedding anniversary was given by the staff of Lyle Brothers Limited of which Mr. Jones is a member.

Delicious refreshments were served and the evening spent in playing games and singing songs that were popular thirteen years ago.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Goodwin, D. A. Birnie, Miss M. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones, Bobby and Winnequin Jones, Miss Zola Colwell, Mr. Oatha Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lyle, Mr. R. McGuinness, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Mack W. Lyle and son, Mr. R. O. Cox, and Mr. and Mrs. K. I. Lyle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jones are well known in the Arrowwood district, having lived here many years. He has a farm just north-west of town, occupied at present by E. C. Bowman. Mrs. Jones, before her marriage, was Fannie Lyle and a former teacher of the Arrowwood School.

Buffalo Hill News

There was a good attendance at the party put on by the Young People's Club, at the residence of J. R. Wyatt on Saturday evening Sept. 30th. Card games, speeches and singing provided the amusement followed by dancing till a late hour. This is a good start for the social season ahead and may have many of them here's hoping.

The Road to RECOVERY

A Statement by the Prime Minister of Canada

WITHIN a few days the Dominion of Canada will offer for public subscription the 1933 Refunding Loan, the purpose and terms of which will be announced in detail by the Minister of Finance on Tuesday, October 10. In this national undertaking an opportunity will be afforded both for sound investment and for public service, and I have no doubts as to the readiness with which Canadian investors will respond.

I feel, however, that the 1933 Loan marks a point in Canadian affairs to which it is only proper that public attention should be drawn as a means of extending justifiable encouragement to many thousands of men and women who have endured adversity with such admirable fortitude.

With due precaution against unwarranted optimism I think I may say that in Canada we are now on the road to recovery. The road may be long and progress may be slow, but the events of the past six months appear to demonstrate with increasing clarity that the downward trend has come to a definite stop and that an upward trend is now in progress.

The evidence of improvement is written in the statistical facts of our industry and trade. These records show that our general economic condition reached its lowest point during the month of February last and that today we are definitely above that level following a recovery which has been gradual but persistent and unmistakable.

The most significant of these figures are probably those dealing with the physical volume of business, wholesale prices and employment, and I give here briefly the record of recovery in each case as shown by the reports of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The index of our physical volume of business, which represents virtually the economic pulse of the nation, stood last February at 67.1. For August, the most recent month for which the index is available, the figure was 89.9, an improvement of approximately 34%.

Wholesale prices, in which even minor changes are highly significant, have risen over 9%, or from an index of 63.6 last February to one of 69.4 in August.

Employment, although still at a regrettably low level, has, nevertheless, been gaining steadily for the past five months. On the basis of partial reports from industrial employers some 116,000 persons have been added to pay-rolls since last April. An estimate by the Bureau on a more comprehensive basis places the total increase in employment at 246,000 during the same period.

Our external trade figures are equally encouraging. Both exports and imports have risen, with the former showing the more rapid increase. As a result, Canada had a favourable trade balance of over $114,000,000 in the twelve months ended August 31st this year. For the corresponding period last year the favourable balance was only $38,000,000, and in the two previous twelve months' periods instead of favourable figures we had unfavourable balances of $45,000,000 and of $103,000,000 respectively.

All these facts and figures I think we may quite safely take as sign-posts on the road to recovery. In our further progress, no single factor will have more significance than the success of our national loan operations. The recent 4% loan in London was a notable tribute to Canada's credit standing. It was immediately oversubscribed many times and now commands a substantial premium. I feel satisfied that our own people will be quick to perceive that the 1933 Refunding Loan in Canada is at once a challenge and an opportunity—a challenge to aid in the restoration of business recovery and an opportunity to serve thereby their own and their country's best interests.

everyone knows it would be just like throwing the ratcatchers' money away, to attempt to smooth them up, in the dry condition they are in at present.

There is one important thing I would call this party's attention to, that is the lack of cooperation the Council has met in the past by these kickers of conditions, as they exist in the Village.

On more than one occasion when we have put the road in good shape, before the drag has had time to cool, we see a tractor all set with lugs (to be sure to do a good job) and invariably drawing something behind it, going over them, and they do not stop at roads. We presume they cannot do quite enough damage there, so they deliberately pull over the cement sidewalk to create a little further damage. We are wondering if these people are aware that it is an infraction of the Provincial Law to travel on highways with lugs on the tractors.

We appreciate the way some people have of improving the appearance of our Village by making a parking place of our streets for separators, tractors, old torn down trucks, etc. This may mean beauty in some people's eyes, but the majority of our residents does not very heartily approve of this kind of decoration.

Yours truly,

E. LEWENDON.

Appreciates Kindness of Arrowwood People

Logansport, Indiana,

September 21, 1933

Dear Friends of Arrowwood and Vicinity:

Since I desire very much to send a message to all of the old friends, as well as the new friends, which I met during my stay in Arrowwood, and only wish that I had the time to write to each one of you individually, but since I have not, I decided that I would take this method of writing to try to show my appreciation for the wonderful way in which you all helped us while I was there, to make the burdens lighter and more easy to endure, and I have no doubt but that you are now doing even more than you did then. I cannot begin to express to you in words, how much your many kind deeds were appreciated by us. I will say in simple words: "I thank you."

Often I would say to Mother, that I NEVER saw anything like it, the way folks seemed to never tire of bringing in food of every description, flowers, etc. and doing every thing imaginable that would in some way assist, and the many helpful and sympathetic callers, and interested inquirers, some of whom I did not even know, made us realize that every one were our friends, old and young and it made no difference what station in life they held, nor whether Catholic or Protestant, or even non-professor, all were as one in administering to our needs, and would do any thing for us that was in their power. Father would so often say: "No one in Arrowwood would need any thing very long if the folks found it out, and it was possible to have it."

It is needless to tell you that I was sorry to leave while Father was still ill, but felt I should get to my own home, after being away for so long. As I was lamenting that I must go, one friend assured me that I could rest easy in the thought that my folks were among friends. And it does give me great consolation and satisfaction, as I do know now since being there, that you are friends indeed, though we never know how much our friend mean to us, until we need them as badly, nor do we fully appreciate them. When I know that you are helping to bear our burden, I will try to not worry about it.

Then too, I had so many good and kind friends among you, which I decided to leave (and I think I met nearly every one in the town), besides it being such a trial to leave my own dear aged parents, sister and family, especially when Father was ill, and with such a span of miles (about 2800) between us. I can never forget you, and I am sure that your kind words, good deeds, generosity, etc., will be rewarded some time, some where. I would surely be satisfied if I could always live among you.

We had a most enjoyable visit with old friends and schoolmates, at our old home town in N. D., after not being there for over twenty-one years, and there are some changes.

Had to very pleasant trip to Chicago, though it was very hot the last day on the train, and for several days afterward. My husband met at the train, and seemed quite pleased. Then we spent a day at the Century of Progress Exposition, seeing the modern inventions which are wonderful. Wish you all could visit them.

We drove home from Chicago, Sept. 8th. The car fan blew off into the radiator and caused it quite badly, so we were compelled to stop for two hours for repairs, and did not reach home until nearly 11 p.m.

The weather the past week has been quite pleasant, rather cool. I now appreciate the big trees here more than ever. While I have not been out in the country, yet I believe it has not been as dry here as it was out there.

Every moment has been filled to capacity since I arrived home, as I find plenty to do with cleaning and canning all at once, after being away for over seven months.

Edwin is settled again in High School, and in the regular routine of the home, and says his vacation now seems like it was a dream, and all of his horse-back riding and the "Wild West" in general, that he delighted in, to the utmost while out there. And he has already wished that he were back, to help deliver milk, etc.

If this letter occupies the waste basket of the Editor, then you may hear from me again, through this channel, if it is acceptable.

Thanking you again for all favors and you have my very best wishes for the best in life, is the desire of

Your sincere friend,
FLORENCE E. ARNOLD.
(Mrs. Edward W. Arnold).

Weeds

In looking over our own yard and on the north side of our business lot we find a rank growth of Russian Thistles and numerous other weeds, and this would apply to most of the places in town, as well as all the alleys and some on our main streets. We hereby pledge that we will clear our property of this pest and believe that others will do the same before snow flies. Let us all get busy and see what can be accomplished.

Now is the time to get anti-freeze for your radiator. Don't wait until some cold night has done damage to it before you think about getting anti-freeze. Come in now and let us fill your radiator with a high grade anti-freeze. One filling lasts all season and you won't have to bother with water every time you start the family bus.

Good tires are essential to pleasant winter travel. A flat tire on a cold day is as pleasant as a snow storm in June. Firestone tires are dependable and are guaranteed against defects and road hazards for twelve months.
